SELF-GUIDED CAMPUS TOUR

WELCOME TO UNC CHARLOTTE

We hope you enjoy this self-guided walking tour, which offers a general overview of our beautiful, modern campus. We invite you to stop at any building, classroom, residence hall or campus dining area, even those not directly on the walking path. If you are visiting on a typical class day, you will get a better idea of student and campus life.

DAILY CAMPUS TOURS

- » Student-guided daily campus tours are available Monday through Friday and select Saturdays with an advance reservation on our website.
- » For more information about student-guided tours and other campus visit experiences, go to admissions.charlotte.edu/visit.

BEGINNING YOUR SELF-GUIDED TOUR

- » This walking tour has been designed to take approximately ninety minutes.
- » Start at the Gage Undergraduate Admissions Center and follow numbered stops.
- » Return back to Gage Undergraduate Admissions Center using the Gold Niner Transit Bus Stop #34 across from the Light Rail Station or using the Green Niner Transit Bus Stop #8 Student Union East.
- » On your way out, we encourage you to drive along the perimeter of campus to see additional residence halls, academic buildings and the athletic facilities for our NCAA Division I teams.

OUR HISTORY

- » UNC Charlotte is part of the post-World War II generation of metropolitan universities established to expand access to higher education.
- » Originally started in 1946 as an evening college named The Charlotte Center, the institution later evolved into Charlotte College in 1949, offering the first two years of college courses.
- » In 1961, Charlotte College moved its growing student body into two new buildings on what became our current 1,000-acre campus.
- » In 1965, the N.C. legislature approved bills making Charlotte College a four-year, state-supported college, creating the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. UNC Charlotte remains one of the fastest growing universities in the UNC System.

- » South Village Crossing (SoVi): All-you-care-to-eat dining.
- » Laurel Hall & Hunt Hall: Residence halls featuring suite-style living. Residence hall with traditional-style, two-person rooms.
- » Scott Hall & Wilson Hall: First-year student residence halls with traditional two-person rooms.

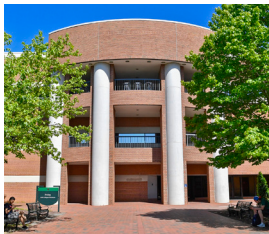

- » Levine Hall featuring suites and apartments. Home to the administrative offices and classrooms for the Honors College and Levine Scholars Program.
- » Housing & Residence Life: An administrative office for on-campus living.

» College of Arts + Architecture (Robinson, Rowe, Storrs): Home to performing arts, dance, music, theater, architecture and the arts departments with many lab spaces and exhibits.

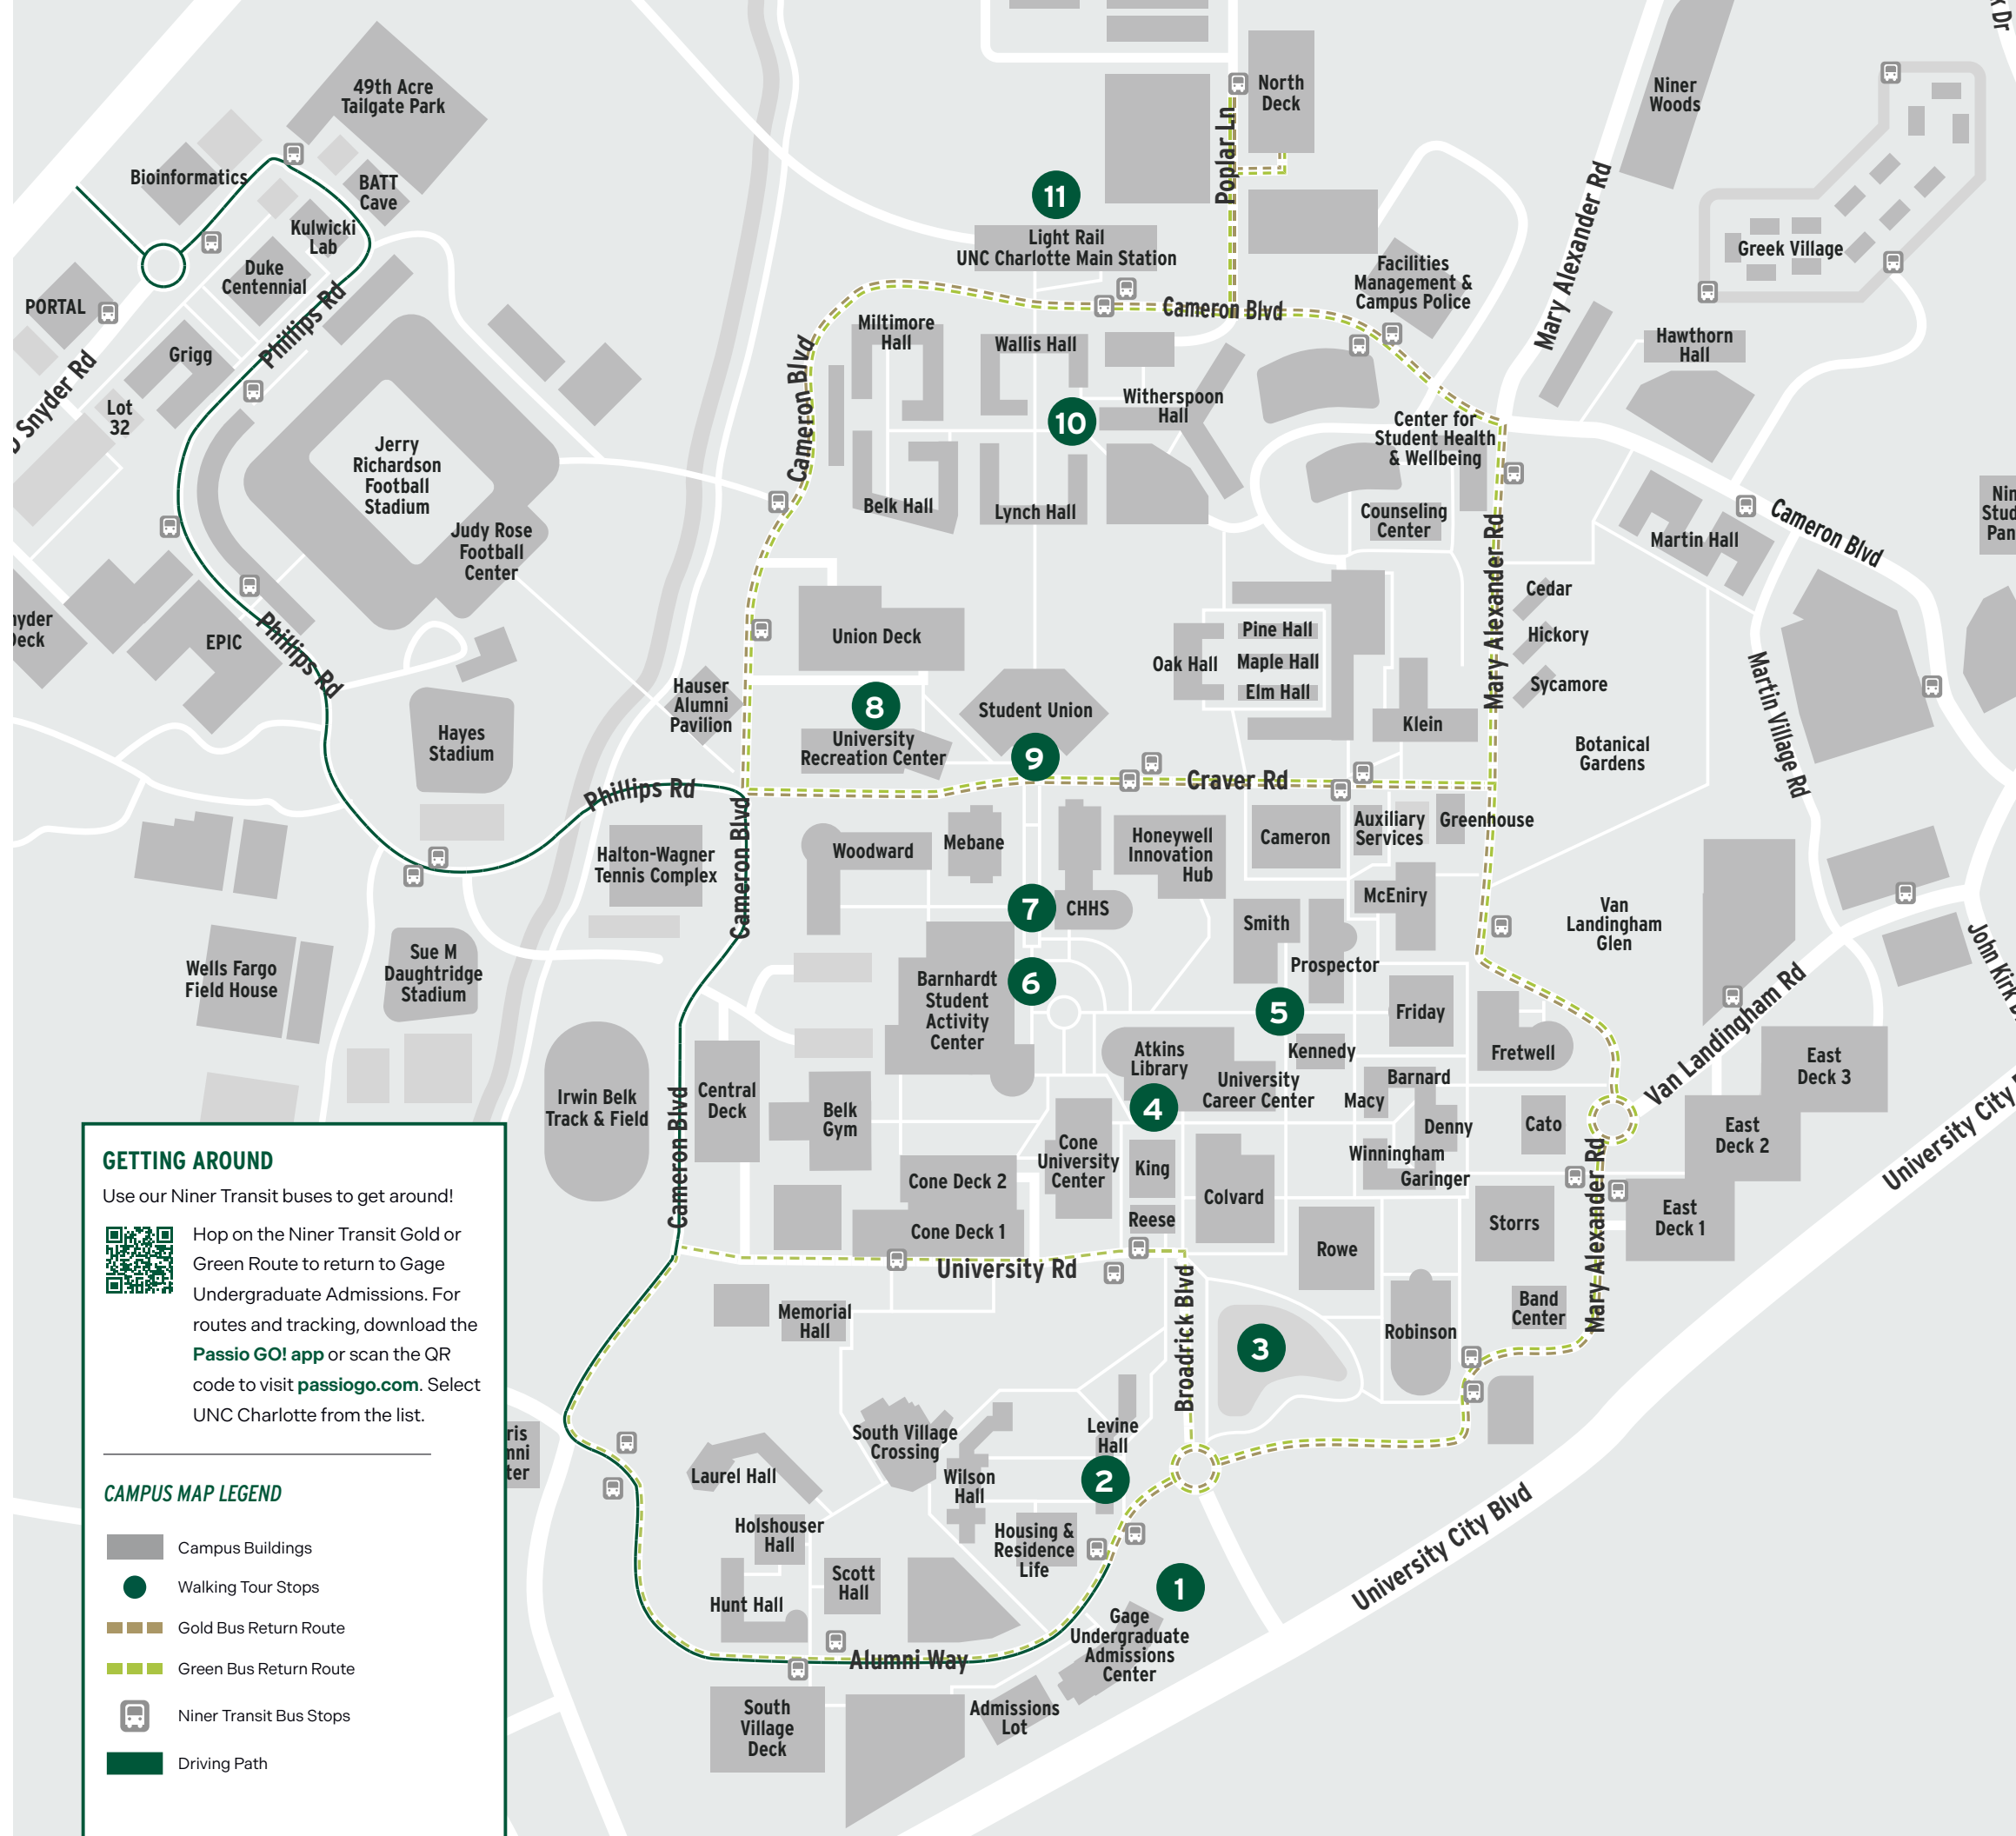

- » College of Humanities & Earth and Social Sciences: the largest academic college with the most majors and departments, located throughout campus. Colvard is home to psychology, communications and criminal justice.
- » Atkins Library: Tallest building on campus with a clear view of Uptown Charlotte from the 10th floor. Starbucks is located on the ground floor.
- » Cone University Center: Named after Bonnie Cone, the founder of UNC Charlotte. Contains Subway, Wild Blue Sushi and the Market at Cone.
- » Niner Central: Central resources for services related to financial aid, billing, registration and transcripts.

- » Belk College of Business (Friday): Home to accounting, economics, finance, international business, marketing and more.
- » William States Lee College of Engineering (Smith + West Campus): Home to civil, computer, electrical, environmental, mechanical and more.

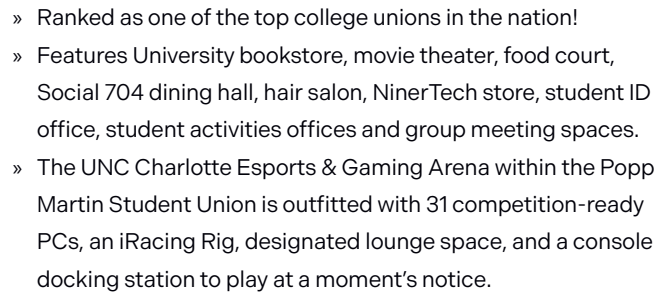

- » Barnhardt Student Activity Center (SAC): 9,000-seat Halton Arena, home to 49er basketball and volleyball.
- » Golden Nugget: Rub the Golden Nugget outside the student entrance of the SAC for good luck.
- » Star Quad: Compass-shaped mosaic design on the ground that is a popular spot for outdoor events and activities like the annual National Pan-Hellenic Council Yard Show during Fall Gold Rush. Fun Fact: if you stand in the center of the star facing the Student Union and speak, you'll hear an echo!

- » Cable Quad: Throw a penny in Norm Statue's pan for good luck during your college experience!
- » College of Computing & Informatics (Woodward): Home to AI, robotics & gaming, bioinformatics, cybersecurity, data science and more.
- » Klein College of Science (Klein & Woodward): Home to Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Mathematics for Business & Physics.
- » Cato College of Education (CCOED): Home to elementary, middle grades and special education; and more.
- » College of Health & Human Services (CHHS): Home to exercise science, nursing, public health and more.

- » 148,000 square foot building dedicated to student recreation and fitness.
- » Features indoor pool and outdoor pool, multi-purpose courts, group fitness studios, elevated running/walking track, cardio and strength equipment, EGYM and a demo kitchen.

- » Miltimore, Wallis, Witherspoon & Belk Halls: Residence halls featuring suite-style and apartment-style living.
- » Lynch Hall: First-year student residence hall featuring suite-style living and home to many Learning Communities.

- » Connects students to Uptown Charlotte for internships, entertainment and more.
- » Students have unlimited access to light rail by downloading the CATS Pass app.

Follow the driving path as you leave campus

- » Athletic facilities: Irwin Belk Track & Field Center, Halton-Wagner Tennis Complex, Phillips Field & Daughtridgde Stadium.
- » Jerry Richardson Football Stadium: 15,000-seat stadium home of the Charlottes 49ers.
- » Academic buildings primarily for engineering majors: Albert & Freeman Energy Production & Infrastructure Center (EPIC), Grigg Hall, Duke Hall, Kulwicki Motorsports Lab, BATT Cave and Bioinformatics.

GETTING AROUND CAMPUS

Most students walk, bike or skateboard to class, but Charlotte also offers a variety of quick transportation across campus:

- » Charlotte's Niner Transit buses are free of charge and operate every day, except when the University is closed. Download the Passio Go app or visit passiogo.com.
- » Lime provides affordable, short-term bike and e-scooter rentals around campus.

CAMPUS SAFETY

- » UNC Charlotte Police & Public Safety is a fully authorized state police agency, providing 24/7 police and security service to the campus.
- » Blue Light emergency phones are placed strategically throughout campus providing the student community with an easy, reliable way to report incidents.
- » The LiveSafe app provides access to campus emergency resources and a direct line of communication with students and the police via text and phone services.
- » Niner Alerts is the University's emergency alert system. It informs students, faculty, staff and families of specific actions to take, as outlined in alerts sent via text messages, email and social media.

NEW ADDITIONS

Charlotte's growing student population also brings exciting additions to our campus.

SUPER FAB LAB

- » UNC Charlotte has become the first public university in the U.S. to establish a Super Fab Lab, a designation by the non-profit Fab Foundation. This novel resource, led by the William States Lee College of Engineering in collaboration with the College of Computing and Informatics, will provide undergraduate and graduate students an even deeper experiential learning opportunity.

HONEYWELL INNOVATION HUB

- » UNC Charlotte's Burson Hall will become a 155,000-square-foot Honeywell Innovation Hub funded by a $10 million gift to advance STEM education, research, and workforce development in the region.

EXPLORE THE QUEEN CITY

Our proximity to the city of Charlotte gives students great opportunities to explore, study and research in one of America's fastest growing economies. Whether you're interested in the arts, music, sports, history, dining, shopping or just sightseeing, there's something for you in Charlotte.

- » Shopping: Several area malls (including Concord Mills and SouthPark Mall), IKEA, shopping centers, art galleries and antique malls.
- » Major League Sports: Carolina Panthers (NFL), Charlotte Hornets (NBA), Charlotte Checkers Hockey (AHL), Charlotte Motor Speedway (NASCAR), Charlotte Knights (MiLB) and Charlotte Football Club (MLS).
- » Outdoors/Attractions: Carowinds Amusement Park, Blumenthal Performing Arts Center, Great Wolf Lodge & Waterpark, Topgolf Charlotte, U.S. National Whitewater Center, museums and more.
